Parent Coaches: Stand Out from the Crowd with The Parenting Blueprint™

Portage, IN - Teaching Our Youth understands that no two families are the same, and that's why they've developed a revolutionary program for parent coaches and practitioners that utilizes the understanding of personalities as the foundation to parent by design. The Parenting Blueprint™ Self paced parenting course and personality assessments are now available to practitioners looking to elevate their coaching and provide their clients with a more personalized approach to parenting.

The Parenting Blueprint™ is designed to help parent coaches provide their clients with a complete coaching experience that is tailored to their unique needs and goals. The curriculum covers a range of topics such as understanding parenting/personality styles as well as the personalities of their children. It also addresses effective communication, managing stress, setting boundaries, building resilience, mental wellbeing and promoting positive behavior in children. The program is designed to help parent coaches expand their knowledge and skills while also offering their clients a more comprehensive coaching experience in each season of parenting.

"We believe that understanding personalities is essential to effective parent coaching," said Karen Wagon, the founder of The Parenting Blueprint™. "Our program utilizes personality assessments to help coaches better understand the diverse differences in their family's dynamics. By doing so, coaches can design a personalized Action Plan that will bridge "the gap" and help parents achieve their parenting goals."

The Parenting Blueprint™ is developing a team of expert parent coaches and practitioners that provide individualized support, tailoring their approach to meet the unique needs and goals of each family. By becoming a Parenting Blueprint™ Practitioner, you can improve your coaching skills, expand your knowledge, and offer your clients a more personalized and effective coaching experience.
